Parent Privacy Notice

Policy Statement

During your child's time with us, we will gather and use information relating to you.

Information that we hold in relation to individuals is known as their "personal data". This will include data that we obtain from you directly and data about you that we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold your personal data for a period of time after your child has left the School. Anything that we do with an individual's personal data is known as "processing".

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about you and your child, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and your rights in relation to your personal data processed by us.

What information do we process in relation to you?

We will collect, hold, share and otherwise use the following information about you:

- personal information (such as name, address, home and mobile numbers, personal
- email address, emergency contact details and relationship marital status).
- financial details (such as bank account or credit card details) for payment of termly
- fees and / or trips and other costs.
- CCTV footage and images obtained when you attend the School site.
- your relationship to your child.

We will also use special categories of data such as gender, age, ethnic group, sex or sexual orientation, religious or similar beliefs, information about health, genetic information and biometric data. These types of personal data are subject to additional requirements.

Where do we get your personal data from?

We will obtain an amount of your personal data from you, by way of information gathering exercises at appropriate times such as when your child joins the School, and when you attend the School site and are captured by our CCTV systems.

We may also obtain information about you from other sources. This might include information from the local authorities or other professionals or bodies.

Why do we use your personal data?

We will process your personal data for the following reasons:

1. Where we are required by law, including:

- To provide reports and other information required by law in relation to the performance of your child
- To raise or address any concerns about safeguarding

THE GRANGE SCHOOL

- To Government agencies (such as the NHS, Local Authority) where relevant
- To obtain relevant funding for the school
- To provide or obtain additional services including advice and/or support for your family

2. Where the law otherwise allows us to process the personal data as part of our functions as a School, or we are carrying out a task in the public interest, including:

- To confirm your identity
- To communicate matters relating to the School to you
- To safeguard you, our pupils and other individuals
- To enable payments to be made by you to the School
- To ensure the safety of individuals on the School site
- To aid in the prevention and detection of crime on the School site
- To deliver provision of educational support and related services to pupils (and parents)

3. Where we otherwise have your consent

Whilst the majority of processing of personal data we hold about you will not require your consent, we will inform you if your consent is required and seek that consent before any processing takes place.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may process special category personal data in relation to you for the following reasons:

1. Where the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, including for purposes of equality of opportunity and treatment, where this is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.
2. Where the processing is necessary in order to ensure your health and safety on the School site, including making reasonable adjustments for any disabilities you may have.
3. Where we otherwise have your explicit written consent.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests of those of your child, and where it is not possible to seek your consent.

Failure to provide this information

If you fail to provide information to us we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations.

THE GRANGE SCHOOL

How long will we hold your personal data for?

We will hold your personal data only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. For further detail please see our Data Retention Policy which is accessible from the Schools website and via Firefly.

Who will we share your personal data with?

We may share information about you with:

- The Independent Schools Inspectorate in compliance with legal obligations of the school to provide information about pupils and parents as part of statutory data collections
- Contractors, such as payment processing providers to enable payments to be made by you to the School.
- Local authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in safeguarding purposes

Your rights in relation to your personal data held by us

You have the right to request access to personal data that we hold about you, subject to a number of exceptions. To make a request for access to your personal data, you should contact:

Director of Finance and Operations and Data Protection Officer via gdpr@grange.org.uk.

Please also refer to our Data Protection Policy for further details on making requests for access to your personal data.

You also have the right, in certain circumstances, to:

- Object to the processing of your personal data
- Have inaccurate or incomplete personal data about you rectified
