Job Purpose

The Opportunity

The role of the Leisure Assistant is a key central role in our Sports and leisure facilities which are available to hire by our local community during the evening and at weekends, and within the day during the school holidays. This is very much a 'hands-on' and Proactive role where you are able to be organised, diligent and professional to our hirers.

We require someone with outstanding communication and is able to give our customers the 'wow' factor to act as the main point of contact for our users; ensuring our hirers are looked after, overseeing bookings, setting up the facilities and general housekeeping whilst on shift to maintain our high standards.

The postholder will work across weekends and evenings.

Flexibility and a proactive attitude are essential. There will be key holder responsibilities connected to this role.
